The Plan of the Committee of Fifteen

The plan of reconstruction which the Committee of Fifteen have decided upon is substantially what President Johnson recommended in all his speeches from the time of his appointment as Military Governor of Tennessee until some months after his accession to the Chief Magistracy. There is not a single requirement in the proposed plan that Mr Johnson himself, one year ago, did not insist on in stronger language than any one else who has treated of this subject has ever employed. Indeed in very many of his declarations as all remember (for the time has not been so long as to cause those things to be forgotten) he went much further in his demands for punishment for indemnity and for guarantees than any other man, North or South has done. Do the admirers of his later "policy" complain that it is now proposed to disfranchise leading rebels for four years? Let them turn back to the record where Johnson declared that they should be disfranchised for all time. Do they complain that prominent rebels are to be excluded from holding office? Let them read Mr Johnson's emphatic declaration that "those who brought the great trouble on the country should never be permitted to have a part in controlling its destinies." Is objection raised to the apportionment of representatives on the basis proposed by the Reconstruction Committee? Mr Johnson has pronounced for the proposition. Is the repudiation of the rebel debt by a constitutional bar, objectionable? The President compelled several of the Insurgent States to repudiate debts of this description, before he would permit their new governments to be organized. In short, everything required of the South by the Congressional plan, the President has committed himself to by his word and acts, nay more, he has even strongly recommended qualified suffrage for the blacks, thus going further than Congress has ever gone.

One year ago, before treason had been made as good as loyalty by President Johnson, and before guilty traitors had been taught to make insolent and exacting demands of the Government they had vainly tried to overthrow, the Southern people would have been rejoiced to have had the offer of conditions of restoration so lenient as those proposed by Congress. But since President Johnson has taught them to forget that they are criminals, making them believe that they are a people "more sinned against than sinning," and that they are unjustly oppressed by the people of the North, whom the President calls "the real traitors, it is not very probable that they will now be remarkably willing to accept these terms, though in point of leniency and magnanimity, they are of a nature as far beyond the desert as the conception of guilty rebels.

A paragraph from a late article in the New York Evening Post gives a proper view of the situation in which the rebels have placed themselves. The Post is speaking of A. H. Stephens' testimony before the Reconstruction Committee:

> The States lost none of their rights by rebellion; but rebels in them lost all of their rights. We did not choose to execute the law upon Stephens and his confederate traitors. We preferred mercy to justice, but surely it is astonishing impudence in men so treated to turn round and teach us upon rights. Their right is to be hanged, and because we very seriously believe hanging a very poor use to make of so large a number of men, therefore they are not to forget that they are criminals, as Stephens now does in lecturing loyal and patriotic men, showing them their constitutional duties.

Such being a fair presentation of the case, it must be allowed that the terms of restoration which Congress proposes, form a plan which, in view of the enormity of the offence committed, is a model leniency and moderation.

The Committee of Fifteen has for months been employed taking testimony in relation to affairs in the South, and to the general feeling there. The result of these investigations is the development of the unwelcome truth that few who have been traitors are fit to be trusted. Even the rebel General Lee confesses that there is a sentiment in his State which renders the expression of free opinions exceedingly dangerous to loyal men. It is very evident that the late rebels purpose to satiate their vengeance by the persecution of the defenders of the Union the moment they got the power in their hands. Experience has already taught us what they have hearts to do when they have the opportunity. The persecution of Union citizens in every Southern State during the rebellion and the horrors of Andersonville, Salisbury and the Libby have not been forgotten. With the overwhelming evidences of their continuing disloyalty before us, the country may well hesitate to give these people at once the power to do the harm they evidently intend. There is reason for great deliberation in dealing with a matter which involves such grave results. Opposed to the precipitation of the President in restoring rebels to power is the plan of safety which Congress presents. The people have chosen between them.

James D. Fay, Democratic candidate for Congress says:

James K. Kelly, Democratic candidate for Governor says:

If United States bonds are not taxed I will never vote to pay the interest of the public debt, by G—d.

James O'Meara, Democratic candidate for State Printer, says:

If the people get a chance they will extinguish the whole corrupt public debt in thirty days without any tax.

M. H. Abbott editor of the Oregon Herald, and a Democratic leader in Oregon said in 1861:

I consider the Union dissolved never to be restored.

In 1862 James D. Fay said: I demand that the South be allowed to go in peace.

In 1861 James O'Meara said that he would not take an oath to support the Constitution of the United States because he would [illegible] perjury.

In 1864 James K. Kelly declared that the Union never could be restored by war.

JOHNSONIAN SPEECHES.—The Sacramento Union of the 24th ult., commenting upon the President's last harangues says:

The vain and vulgar individual who unfortunately occupies the chair of Washington has been delivering himself again. Two of his harangues are reported and they are of such a character that we cease to wonder at the reluctance of the wires to mortify the country by giving them quick circulation. One speech was delivered on the 18th in response to a serenade. In this decorous and dignified effort Johnson repeatedly styles his opponents curs and hounds who are to be put down or whipped into submission. Next day (19th) the freedmen celebrated the anniversary of emancipation in the District of Columbia. The procession consisted of two regiments of colored troops and delegations of various Irish societies! This novel procession called on the President and he spoke again boasting that though he did not use the negro as a political hobby he had done more than any living man to secure the abolition of slavery by an amendment to the Constitution. Both speeches are full of Andrew Johnson and him crucified. The sacrifice of six slaves in exchange for several fat offices under the National Government seems to be such a dreadful affliction to his conscience that he can't make a speech without ventilating his sorrow. Thaddeus Stevens was reduced from wealth to poverty by Early's raid in Pennsylvania and never refers to his loss as giving him a claim upon public sympathy and support. The President's "sacrifices" are as mythical as his sympathy for the freedmen.

The action of the Executive is as inconsistent as his talk. A week ago, he declared that his Peace Proclamation did not restore the privilege of the habeas corpus in the Insurgent States. Now he reverses the decision of Judge Underwood in a habeas corpus case at Alexandria, and orders the Court to release the prisoner! Surely the President deserves the trust and confidence of Union men."

A "Union Record" Further Illustrated.

A few days ago we gave some choice extracts from the Pike County Democrat, a paper once edited by M. H. Abbott, at present chief editor of the Oregon Herald. To-day we give further proofs of the sort of "loyalty" which once animated this "sterling patriotic Democrat."

Shortly after the rebellion began, the Democrat, published at Pittsfield, Pike county, Illinois, and edited by M. H. Abbott, contained by the following "Union" doctrine:

> Is it our duty to fight Mr. Lincoln's battles? Is it our duty to imbrue our hands in the blood of friends, and old neighbors and dear kindred in the South? WHY NOT LET THEM GO OUT PEACEABLY? Why not have an EQUITABLE AND JUST PARTITION AND SEPARATE AMICABLY?

The same paper in its issue of January 22d, 1863, continued the Herald editor's "Union" creed in six chapters, as follows:

> I. We believe the war will end substantially in the next six months. It may possibly be prolonged a year, but we do not believe it. Active warlike preparations will cease—a treaty will be entered into, but guerrillas will continue to perpetrate their raids for months afterward despite all restraints arising from treaty obligations.
>
> II. THE CONFEDERATE STATES WILL ACHIEVE THEIR INDEPENDENCE. They will accomplish the object for which they have been fighting. Their independence will be acknowledged by the European Powers and by the Federal Government, and for a while they will go on their way rejoicing.
>
> III. A separation having been thus effected, a question will arise between the Eastern and the Western States. We believe the latter States will insist on a separation from the East. WE, FOR ONE, DO NOT WISH TO BE TIED ON TO THE EAST. We should be hewers of wood and drawers of water for them just so long as our connection with them shall remain unbroken.
>
> IV. A separation having been effected either peacefully or otherwise, the question will arise as to what the Western States will do—WHETHER THEY WILL FORM A SEPARATE GOVERNMENT OR UNITE WITH THE SOUTH. Their moneyed interests will lead them to join the South. Whether they will or not will depend very much upon circumstances.
>
> V. THE VAST NATIONAL DEBTS CREATED BY ALL PARTIES WILL ULTIMATELY BE REPUDIATED, for the reason that it will be utterly and totally impossible ever to cancel them.
> VI. The Democratic party will ultimately assume control over the whole land—not even excepting blue-bellied Massachusetts and Vermont. They will propose a plan of reunion, which, though it may linger along, will finally be adopted. Imminent danger of a war with some foreign power will hasten such a consummation.

The writer of the above is now prating daily of his fidelity to the Union. If the above extracts set forth what the Herald editor means by "the devotion of the Democracy to the Government of our fathers," where shall we find treason? If these words are the livery of loyalty, where can treason find wherewithal "to put its native semblance on?"

The inconsistency which is found to exist between the record which the Herald editor made a few years ago, and the record he is "essaying" to make now, entitles us to say of him as Claverhouse did of Oliphant—"He conceals his treason under the double cloak of loyalty, well lined with the fox-fur of hypocrisy."

The Record.

> 10. Resolved, That we will ever hold in grateful memory those through whose patriotic, not mercenary or partisan, services the dignity of the Republic and the integrity of the Union were preserved.—Oregon Copperhead Platform.

That this resolution was put in the copperhead platform to catch the votes of discharged Union soldiers, is quite a common opinion; we think otherwise. It can scarcely be that the democracy have learned within a short year to feel grateful toward the men whom they used to denounce, calling them "Lincoln hirelings," "base tools of a tyrant," bestowing upon them all manner of ridicule, pronouncing at Chicago, their efforts to save the Union, "a failure," etc., etc. For four years and upward, the copperheads gave all their sympathies to the deadly enemies of the Union soldiers. We have heard them speak in high terms of the "meritorious services" of Confederate soldiers but it would be something new to hear of any Union soldiers receiving at their hands, either commendation or acknowledgment for patriotic services.

The Democratic party of Oregon means by the adoption of that resolution, just what Messrs Fay and Lane mean by endorsing it. Do those gentlemen mean that they feel grateful toward Union soldiers? Let us see the record:

During the session of the Legislature of 1864, on the 19th day of September, Mr. Borland, since a soldier, offered House joint resolution No. 23, thanking our volunteers for their gallant services, which was adopted by ayes 31, nays 2, Messrs. Cox, Democratic member from Josephine, and Lane, member from Umatilla, and now Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, voted, NO. Fay and Beall, absent. This was simply a vote of thanks to Union soldiers, which could cost nobody any thing more than a gracious word. Mr. Lane's gratitude then, was not to Union soldiers.

At the same session, a call having been made on Oregon for a regiment of infantry, bills were introduced making the provisions necessary for calling out such force, and providing for payment of county bonds. The bounty bill was supported by every Union member of the House except Messrs. Callison and Thornton. Every Democrat in the House voted against the final passage of the bill, after having opposed it violently at every stage. LAFAYETTE LANE, Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, VOTED NO. Fay, absent. This was at a time, when the pay of a private soldier—in greenbacks—amounted to the value of only eight or nine dollars per month in coin. LANE was then so grateful toward Union soldiers that he voted against giving them the small sum of fifty dollars per year out of the State treasury.

Again, at the extra session of 1865, it being proposed to amend the bounty law so as to provide bounties, also, to volunteers in the cavalry (such bounties not being provided for in the act of 1864), Messrs. Beall, Cox, FAY AND LANE VOTED NO. The Union members voted aye on the amendment. When the bill was put upon its passage, Messrs. Beall and FAY VOTED NO. Lane not voting.

These votes illustrate very fully what Messrs Fay and Lane mean when they indorse the resolutions of the Democratic Convention. They opposed every proposition in the Legislature which sought to benefit or encourage the Union soldiers. The Democratic papers always denounced those measures and never omitted an opportunity for casting odium upon both officers and men, descending frequently into the depths of obscenity and falsehood of the most shameless character, for the means of gratifying their hate.

These same men and papers have often eulogized in glowing terms the heroism, bravery and "meritorious services" of Confederate soldiers. This latter sort of soldiers must be the men to whom the Democratic Convention tendered its meed of "grateful memory." It could not have meant Union soldiers, unless it meant to belie the record of Democracy from the beginning of the rebellion, down the the 9th day of May, 1866.

With these facts before them no man who has been a soldier in the Union army can or will vote the Democratic ticket without an abandonment of self respect, as well as of those patriotic impulses which carried him into the service.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO APRIL 30.

Washington News

NEW YORK, April 30.—The Commercial Advertiser's Washington dispatch says: The Austrian Minister has advertised his furnished residence for sale, and expects the next European steamer to bring news of the sailing, of Austrian troops for Mexico, which will insure his receiving his passport from Mr. Secretary Seward. There is no doubt of the hostility to the [illegible] scheme in existence [illegible] National Intelligencer and Republican [illegible].

The Evening Post's [illegible] dispatch says the Bank Committee [illegible] to report against the creation of any more national banks.

United States and English Fleets in Valparaiso.

CHICAGO, April 30.—Washington specials say the navy department has advices from Commodore Rogers commanding the U. S. Squadron in the harbor of Valparaiso, that he had placed his fleet between the Spanish vessels and the city, and had in conjunction with the English Admiral notified the Spanish Commodore that the [illegible] bombardment of that city would not be permitted. Commodore [illegible] thinks he could sink the Spanish fleet [illegible] half an hour with his monitor Monadnock, and [illegible] that the Spanish authorities are doubtless of the same opinion. The U. S. squadron in the harbor consists of the monitor Monadnock, four guns; [illegible] Powhatan, twelve guns; the Vanderbilt, fifteen guns; the Tuscarora, ten guns; and Suwanee, [illegible] guns, making in all sixty one guns. The English fleet is smaller in number of vessels and also guns.

Finances.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The weekly bank statement is unexpectedly favorable to continued ease in the money market. The deposits show an increase of $10,093,000; Legal tenders an increase of $2,986,344; and loans an increase of $2,050,929. The demand for money is too great to admit any permanent decline in values at present, and every falling off in prices is soon succeeded by a rally. The Sub-Treasury will to-morrow pay the gold interest on the five-twenties.

Fire at New Haven

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 30.—The buildings of the New Haven Clock Company, seven in number, with eleven dwelling houses adjoining, were burned this morning. Loss $250,000. Twenty families are rendered homeless.

The Cadiz Robbers Taken.

WHEELING, April 30.—The burglars who robbed the bank at Cadiz, Ohio, were overtaken near La Grande this afternoon. After a sharp skirmish, one burglar was wounded and three captured. The amount recovered will probably exceed $15,000.

Fire at Thorold, C. W.

THOROLD, C. W., April 30th.—A fire yesterday afternoon destroyed thirty-three buildings on Front and Clermont streets. Loss $250,000.

China Telegraph—Reconstruction.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The East India Telegraph Company of New York has appointed Dr. D. J. McGowan to proceed to China as a commissioner and engineer to connect Pekin with Canton. He will be accompanied by a staff of practical telegraphers.

The Tribune says of the Congressional plan of reconstruction: "Our own preference for a much shorter and simpler programme is well known, but we may accept the report agreed on in committee as the Union party's plan."

The Herald says: "The plan is ingeniously contrived. It is considerably milder than anything that has hitherto emanated from the committee. It may be said to be unnecessary in some things, superfluous in others, and unfair in its continued exclusion of Southern States, after they have fulfilled the conditions of the administration, which is charged with discretionary power over the whole subject, but we have only now to await the issue before Congress."

The Times says: "The scheme would seem to be sweeping enough to satisfy the most exacting Radical. It could hardly be much more sweeping indeed unless it provided for wholesale confiscation, and the extermination or banishment of the Southern people, as a plan of purification and reconstruction. It is worse than a burlesque. It might be styled so were not the country in the midst of a very serious dilemma. Its proper designation would be a plan to prolong indefinitely the exclusion of the South by imposing conditions to which the Southern people never will submit."

The World says the purpose of the plan would not have been more apparent, had it been labeled—"An infallible plan to prevent the South from voting at the next Presidential election."

A Washington special dispatch says: The plan meets the entire sanction of the majority in Congress, and it is not expected or anticipated that any material amendment will be carried. The friends of the President gave assurances last night that if Congress will carry out the scheme in good faith, it will receive his full approval and co-operation. Neither of his Washington organs will, it is stated, commit themselves on the proposition.

The Herald's special dispatch says: The proposition is everywhere looked on as a very diminutive result to repay the long labor of the mountain. Common rumor attributes its authorship to Conkling and Forney. Both wings of the party are out of humor, but both support the plan, since it does not distinctly controvert their opinions, and is perhaps the nearest their peculiar views that can be obtained.

Congressional Intelligence.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Fessenden of Maine in the Senate, and Stevens of Pennsylvania, in the House, reported the joint resolution and bills from the reconstruction committee. Stevens in reply to a question, said this report did not supercede the one concerning Tennessee, made some time since, which he said could be called up at any time. The report made to-day was, by a two-third vote, made the special order in the House for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. Stevens said that a short written report would soon be presented.

Stevens, from the committee on appropriations, reported a bill appropriating $11,584,000 for the Freedmen's Bureau for the year commencing the 1st of January, 1866, as follows: Salaries of Assistant Commissioners, $47,600; clerks, $82,800; stationery and printing, $63,000; quarters and fuel, $16,000; clothing for distribution, $1,750,000; commissary $235,750; medical, $500,000; transportation, $103,000; school superintendents, $21,000; sites for school houses and asylums, $3,000,000; telegraphing, $18,000. Stevens also offered a substitute for the bill introduced by him, Dec. 20th, to pay the damages done to loyal men by the rebel Government and rebel raiders, and to enforce the confiscation of the enemy's property. The proposition forfeits to the United States all the public lands belonging to the late rebellious States, directs the President to cause the seizure forthwith of such property belonging to the late belligerent enemy, as is deemed forfeited under the act of 18th July, 1862, to hold and appropriate the same as enemy's property, and proceed to condemnation of that already seized. The bill further provides that the President shall appoint commissioners to adjust and condemn such property which shall then become vested in the United States. The lands thus confiscated shall be distributed among the freedmen at the rate of forty acres to each adult male person. The balance of the confiscated property to be applied to the pension list, to the equalization of bounties, and to the payment of damages to loyal citizens. This bill further provides that in enforcing confiscation the value of $1,000, in real or personal property, shall be left with the delinquent.

Kirkendall, of Illinois, offered a resolution for Tennessee to be restored to proper practical relations with the Union. Referred to judiciary committee.

The postoffice appropriation bill being taken up in the Senate, Trumbull, of Illinois, moved an amendment that no person exercising the duties of an office which by law is required to be filled by the advice and consent of the Senate, shall before confirmation by the Senate receive any salary for his services, unless he be commissioned by the President to fill a vacancy which has during the recess of Congress and since the last adjournment happened by the resignation or expiration of the term. Johnson, of Maryland, opposed this as an infringement of the appointments of the President. Howe, of Wisconsin, said that Postmaster General Randall, who was chairman of a Johnson club, had remarked that no man should eat President Johnson's bread and butter who did not support his policy. He did not agree that the public patronage was designed to be an instrument for dragging the people into the support of a particular line of policy. Trumbull said that in his amendment to the statute of 1863 it was provided that officers appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate could be removed only with the advice and consent of the Senate. There is therefore, no constitutional question involved. If the President violates the law in removing officers then he may look out. He has no power over the treasury, and it is certainly legitimate for Congress to declare who shall and who shall not receive pay. Johnson said that admitting the power of Congress to refuse to pay to officers appointed by the President it was questionable whether it was a moral right to do so. Sherman said he believed Congress had a right and that it was its duty to prescribe how officers should be removed and appointed, and though specially desirable at this time, he thought it should be done by separate act, and not by an amendment to an appropriation bill.

Foreign.

FARTHER POINT, N. F., April 30th.—The steamship Hibernian from Liverpool the 19th, via Queenstown the 20th, passed in for Quebec.

Consols, 86¾ to 87; 5-20's, 70 to 70½. Satterly's mail circular says large transactions in American securities for German account touched as low as 68c but closed on the 19th at 69½.

German advices continue more re-assuring and there was a growing belief in peace.

An Imperial decree prorogues the French Corps Legislatif until the first of June. Rentes closed on the 18th at 67f. 68c.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3d.—In port at Panama, U. S. sloop of war St. Mary. In port at Acapulco, Pacific Mail Steamship company's steamer California and one French man of war.

John McLane, a seaman, was killed at Panama April 14th by falling down the forward hold and was buried on the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Island. Also Patrick Brown, a steerage passenger, died at sea April 24th of [illegible] fever and was buried at sea May 2d.

At 6 p. m. passed an English bark supposed to be the Kangaroo bound for San Francisco.

U. S. steamer Florida, commander Hyland arrived at Aspinwall on the 8th from Havana to relieve the James Adger, commander McDonald which vessel will sail for the United States.

James W. Wilmington of San Francisco and another name unknown died on returning to Panama from Bar[illegible]. A great number of Americans were sick.

Official communications received here by Consul Godoy from the Constitutional Government at El Paso del Norte under date of March 30th give the following accounts of several important victories gained by the Liberals in the northern States of Chihuahua and Coahuila. The city of Chihuahua and capital of the State of the same name was taken by the Liberal forces under command of Gen. Luis Terrazas after two days hard fighting on the 25th and 26th of March. The republicans took three hundred prisoners. Among them is the traitor Julio Carranza who had been acting as Major under the Imperial rule.

On the 22d of the same month the city of Hidalgo del Parral was also attacked and taken by assault by the Liberal forces under Col. Vasquez, thus the last remnant of French and Imperial troops have been driven from Chihuahua and the whole State is now restored to the constitutional law.

In the State of Coahuila at Santa Isabel near Parras, Gen. Viezca and Col. Trevino defeated the French and Imperialists. The French left 116 dead on the field and lost 81 prisoners, the traitors, 53 dead and 85 prisoners. The French had seven officers killed, among whom is the commander, Brian. The enemy's artillery baggage and munitions of war all fell into the hands of the Liberals.

Capt. Johnson and 2d mate Pierce of the Del Norte are on trial in the United States District Court on a charge of beating and otherwise illtreating a seaman named John Smith. The testimony shows that Smith was sulky and would not work when difficulty occurred between him and Pierce on account of his laziness in which Smith was [illegible] and [illegible] into [illegible].

FROM THE NORTH

VICTORIA, May 3.—The first lot of Big Bend gold dust has reached town and has been assayed at the Bank of British North America. It is worth $18 60 per ounce. The amount brought down is $1,603 and it is decidedly the finest yet obtained from British Columbia. Latest advices from the town of Seymour state that nearly all miners from California who came via Victoria have reached the diggings.

U. S. Indian Agent Webster has left Neah Bay with thirty soldiers and two mounted howitzers to punish a tribe of Indians for murdering a hunter, named Stone.

State Items.

According to a report of the Dalles Public School, published in the Mountaineer, there are one hundred and ninety one students belonging to the school, with a daily average attendance of one hundred and sixty-one.

A contract for fitting up the stables and grounds of the State Agricultural Society near Salem, says the Agriculturist, has been made with Mr. Delos Jefferson.

Mr. Robb, Messenger for Wells, Fargo & Co., reports that three men were drowned in Snake river, near the mouth of the Tucanon, a few days since. They were attempting to cross the stream.

The Agriculturist has commenced the publication of the premiums to be awarded at the State Fair, to be held Oct. 17, 1866. The list comprises a much greater number of articles than heretofore, and the prizes are increased for most all important exhibitions. Premiums on cattle are increased one hundred per cent., and on horses, mares and colts, from twenty five to fifty per cent.

THE TRAGEDY IN THE OVERLAND STAGE COACH.—The frightful tragedy in the overland coach from Denver last March, during which our fellow townsman, B. W. Barlow, Esq., U. S. Marshal, took an active part towards quelling the trouble, is fully described in the Fort Kearny Herald. A short account was transmitted to us by telegraph at the time the occurrence happened, and showed that the outlaw who began the work was a refugee from justice in Montana, named Hanschild. He undertook to murder all his fellow passengers in the coach, six in number, fearing he would be arrested by Mr. Barlow, himself a passenger. So soon as they reached a suitable station, and while all were asleep, on the morning of the tragedy, he stabbed one passenger, and shot another, a Mr. Rice, who immediately expired. The person who had been stabbed, then seized the pistol of the desperado, but could not prevent his shooting at random. An eighth passenger, on the top of the coach, awoke at this stage of the proceeding, and the driver knowing where the pistol reports proceeded from, stopped the team when the work of the ruffian was soon suppressed. Mr. Barlow was stabbed in the cheek, the wound proving nearly fatal. The cavalry escort coming up, Hanschild was left with one of them, and lingered until 9 o'clock in the morning, when he died and the body was buried by the road-side. The body of Mr. Rice was taken on to the Cottonwood Springs Station and buried there. He was a wealthy ranchman, living on one of the tributaries of the Platte river, and was en route East for a flock of sheep. During the day previous to the tragedy, Hanschild evinced an uncalled for degree of alarm whenever any narrative of lynching was recited, and once when a rope dangled over the window from the top of the coach, one of the passengers jocularly suggested that "it must be to hang some fellow with," when Hanschild jumped up and begged to be taken into custody, and not hung. The gentleman told him to sit down, that he knew nothing of him, nor did he wish to know. The conversation turning upon Indians, the subject of arms was discussed when Hanschild ascertained that but two of the passengers were armed besides himself. He had mentioned, too, that he had no money left after paying his fare.

IT WON'T CURE CONSUMPTION.—Hall's Pulmonary Balsam is not recommended to Cure Consumption, but it will give more relief than any other remedy offered to the public, and for all other pulmonary and bronchial affections there is nothing equal to it.

MEETING OF THE COMMON COUNCIL.—An adjourned meeting of the Common Council was held at [illegible] evening at the Council Chamber. In the absence [illegible] Mr. McCraken was chosen chairman. The following members were present: Lowndale, McCraken, Plummer, Rosenheim, Strowbridge and Watkins.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES.

Petitions as follows were presented and read:

From Benjamin F. Smith, to use the sidewalk in front [illegible] block [illegible] for building purposes—Referred to the committee on Streets and Public Property.

From Mr. Wagner, for license to sell lager beer in quantities less than one quart—Laid on the table.

From C. M. Porter, to use a portion of Front and Alder streets for building purposes for thirty days—Granted.

From Street Commissioner Simmons, for instructions [illegible] to the deposit of filth and dirt, removed from streets—Referred to committee on Streets and Public Property.

From Ed. Gallagher, for license to sell liquor in quantities less than a quart—Laid on the table.

A remonstrance was received from Wm. McMillen and others, against the proposed improvement of Taylor street, between Front and Second—Referred to committee on Streets.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

The committee to whom was referred the bill of R. [illegible] for $31 30, reported in favor of payment. The report was adopted and a warrant ordered drawn.

The committee on fire and water reported that they had conferred with the Portland Water Co. and that the company was not willing to renew the contract for furnishing the city with water for less than $900 per [illegible]. The committee recommended making a contract at that [illegible]. The committee's report [illegible] ordinance [illegible] renewal of contract.

Committee on streets reported estimate of cost of improving Front street between Pine and C streets, a committee by an ordinance.

The committee reported the proposed improvement of [illegible] street between Pine and Madison defeated by remonstrance of a majority of the property holders.

The committee reported that contractors S. and D. [illegible] had completed improvements in front of blocks [illegible] 60, 167 and 168, and recommended the payment of [illegible]—the contract price—adopted.

[illegible] reported that contractor had completed [illegible] in front of block 175 on Washington street. [illegible] payment of $175, contract price, was ordered to be drawn.

[illegible] on health and police, to whom was referred [illegible] to amend ordinance No. 170 reported a substitute.

The [illegible] Committee to whom was referred the petition of Jack Harris to occupy the [illegible] Market block reported adversely—Adopted.

The [illegible] H. L. Hoyt, reported his proceedings in relation to collection of taxes of 1865. The report was [illegible] filed and a new warrant was ordered to be [illegible] the marshal to proceed with collection, [illegible] for the delinquent taxes such property as [illegible] be sold.

BILLS ORDERED PAID.

[illegible] Company for lighting the city during April, [illegible] gas for Common Council for April $14 00.
[illegible] Water Company, water for city for April, $50.
[illegible], Deputy Marshal, salary for April $150.
[illegible], advertising, $5 00.
[illegible], Receipt Book for City Marshal, $10 50.
[illegible], for services on dredger from April 21 [illegible].
[illegible] Walker, for pay of men employed on Willamette [illegible] improvements, $175 75.

FIRST READING OF ORDINANCES.

An ordinance appropriating the special tax and such [illegible] to be borrowed by the city, for the improvement of the Willamette river.

An ordinance authorizing committee on river improvements to borrow for improvement of the river not exceeding [illegible],000, payable in five years, with interest not exceeding 12 per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually.

An ordinance to provide for construction of apparatus for [illegible] improvement and to employ all necessary work[illegible].

[illegible] to amend ordinance No. No. 170, regulating the granting of licenses to sell liquors. This ordinance [illegible] for the effectual riddance of the pretty [illegible].

[illegible] declaring estimated cost and assessment [illegible] lot holders, of improvement of Front street [illegible] north line of Pine and north line of C street.

[illegible] authorizing contracts for the last named [illegible].

[illegible] were read a third time and [illegible] under a suspension of the rule.

ORDINANCES PASSED.

[illegible] to amend ordinance No. 120, provides that [illegible] shall issue without a bond from petitioner, in [illegible] of $500 for good behavior and compliance with [illegible]. No license shall be granted any female [illegible], and no female shall be employed or harbored in any [illegible] house, under penalty. Ayes—[illegible], Lowndale, McCraken, Plummer, Rosenheim and Watkins—6. Noes—none.

Mr. Strowbridge offered a resolution calling on the Street Commissioner to state the facts in relation to allowing [illegible] for depositing street filth contrary to ordinance.

[illegible] Kyle explained that a boy employed in hauling [illegible] had been charged with violation of city ordinance, found guilty, fined $20, in default of which he is in the city jail. The boy had been directed to deposit the filth, was not to blame and ought to be discharged from both fine and imprisonment.

[illegible] said the Council had a case like this once [illegible] and had ordered the person released, but he was [illegible] that the Council had exceeded its authority in [illegible] case. This person had been found guilty under a [illegible] law. Had the fine been paid, the Council could [illegible] refunded it, but it had no authority to discharge [illegible] from confinement.

Mr. Watkins agreed with Mr. Plummer's position as to [illegible] of authority. He thought in this case, somebody ought to have been sent to jail—either the boy or the Street Commissioner. Filth is being removed from one [illegible], only to be dropped in another—anywhere and everywhere but where it ought to be. The Commissioner had no right to deposit filth where it would poison the people of the city for years—all filth ought to be removed beyond the city limits. He hoped this case would be a warning.

Mr. Strowbridge said he thought the person confined [illegible], but he saw no way by which the Council could help him.

Mr. Plummer offered a resolution asking for executive [illegible] in the case. Adopted.

The Council Adjourned.

[illegible] COURT.—J. J. HOFFMAN, J.—May 3d, 1866. [illegible] Ferguson was arrested on complaint of Eliza Ne[illegible], on the 7th of last month, accusing him of [illegible] committed by taking her clothing. The testimony brought out all the facts. On the 5th, or 6th of [illegible] was on a spree, not a very respectable thing [illegible] and while drunk told Ferguson to take her [illegible] the Salem boat, and for him to go on up to the [illegible] with them, which he did, she promising to [illegible] in a day or two. Ferguson arrived at Salem [illegible] day—the woman remained here and forgot her [illegible] and a warrant was ordered for the arrest of the [illegible] she became sober and made oath to a complaint. [illegible] was not to be found. The officers looked [illegible] for him, and sent to the Dalles, but no [illegible]. A day or two since he returned from Salem [illegible] he had been waiting for the "fickle Eliza," and a [illegible] that he had written to her, telling of his whereabouts, but which she did not get from the postoffice, as [illegible] other evidence, corroborated the truth of his statements, and Mr. Ferguson was allowed to go.

CHOICE FURS.—Messrs. Bloom & Moskowitz, 107 Front street, have purchased the most attractive lot of furs that [illegible] seen in this market, consisting of a very [illegible] lot of Beaver, Otter, Fisher, Mink, etc., the result of an expedition the past winter fitted out by Mr. Halsh, for trapping on the lower Columbia and its tributaries. It is probably the largest lot ever sold by one [illegible] catching the same, in Oregon. Mr. H. had his boat [illegible] for some days at the foot of Pine street, a closely [illegible] sloop of about forty tons, and it occasioned some [illegible] among the curious, but when his cargo was taken [illegible] to be delivered to the purchasers, all who happened [illegible] informed were surprised at what it consisted of. [illegible] Halsh is well prepared for the fur catching business [illegible] Messrs. Bloom & Moskowitz are in the market.

CIRCUIT COURT—AT CHAMBERS, F. D. Shattuck J. May [illegible], 1866.—In the case of the State of Oregon vs. Julius Strauss and Isaac Mosserman, committed for trial on a charge of larceny, and taken before the Court on a writ of habeas corpus, upon an agreed statement of the evidence adduced on the preliminary examination, the bail of Strauss was reduced to $500 and that of Mosserman to [illegible], which being given, defendants were discharged from the custody of the Sheriff. District Attorney Hodgkinson appeared for the State. D. [illegible] for [illegible].

CITY TAXES.—Marshal Hoyt has made his final returns of the delinquent tax list for 1865. The total amount of taxes [illegible] was $14,727 78, all of which, with the following exceptions, making $604, has been collected. Property doubly assessed $39 82, personal property not found, $382 60, real property delinquent and unsold $[illegible] 39. This is much better than collections heretofore in this city, and the delinquency falls far below the percentage usually allowed.

UP THE ROUTE.—Our friend J. Kahn, Esq., of the firm of Kahn Brothers, left Wallula yesterday, according to his previously arranged plans, with a train of fifty-four animals, all packed to their utmost with assorted merchandise. He writes to the firm that matters look encouraging in the upper country. We wish him success.

THE MONTANA.—This steamship will leave San Francisco on Saturday the 5th inst., for this port direct. Mr. McCraken, of McCraken, Merrill & Co., Agents, informs us that she will probably leave Portland for San Francisco, on Saturday, the 12th inst.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.—Workmen are now employed in this city on eight different streets, all of which are being permanently improved, in extent from two to twenty-six blocks each, with the Nicolson, McAdamizing sidewalks, [illegible].

UP THE COWLITZ.—The steamer Rescue, Captain Olsen leaves this morning for Pumphrey's landing, twenty-five miles above Monticello, on the Cowlitz river. The water in that stream is now at a good boating stage.

Attention Portland Zouave Cadets.—An adjourned [illegible] meeting of your company will be held this evening.

A Card.

Th[illegible] to [illegible] the part of some of the [illegible] men [illegible] this city to call things by their wrong names. They give DR. HENLEY [illegible] credit for removing the Cancer from my instep, in fact they wish to make it appear that it was not a Cancer, but an ulcer, fever sore, or something else. Several of the best physicians on this coast all agreed long since that it was a Cancer, and one of them, Dr. Toland, has performed three surgical operations on my foot during the last five years and it got worse. I asked him if he was certain it was a Cancer? He said it was, beyond the shadow of a doubt, and finally told me "there was no cure for it," and I must lose my foot; but rather than do that I made up my mind to go East, when I met Mr. Knight of this place. He told me of DR. HENLEY and I came up. Dr. H. removed the Cancer in a short time, in a skillful manner, without the use of the knife, loss of blood, caustic, burning or injuring the sound parts.

I make this statement in justice to Dr. H., who is a [illegible] a public benefactor, and I shall always remember him with the best feelings of my heart.

S. T.—1860—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, [illegible], lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

M. HOWARD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE,

315 Montgomery St., San Francisco.

The undersigned are fully aware of the many unsatisfactory and useless preparations for restoring hair that have been introduced to the public, and how little confidence is to be placed in any pretensions to restoring the hair to bald heads, but having tried MR. HOWARD'S PREPARATION we are able to state that it not only prevents the hair from falling out, but absolutely reproduces it, and that we now have good heads of hair growing where we were entirely bald. Therefore, as a matter of justice to Mr. Howard, and of consolation to bald heads, we tender him this testimonial. Mr. H. keeps the article for sale in bottles with directions for its use, or applies it himself, as may be desired.

The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON, March 30, 1866.

THE STOCKTON CASE.

There is no end to the excitement consequent upon the action of Congress—or the President. The case of Mr Stockton, of New Jersey, has been exciting enough, but the President has seen fit to add to it by sending back the Civil Rights Bill to the Senate with a veto message. I will first speak of the Stockton case. Doubtless ere this you will have heard the facts in it, but it may not be amiss to state that the Senate in voting him out, has declared to the country that no man is entitled to a seat there who did not receive a majority of the Legislature in joint convention. The Senator, (Stockton,) lacked one vote of a majority, yet expected to have his right to a seat unquestioned. Then when the vote was taken in the Senate he carried the resolution declaring him entitled to the seat by his own vote! That was the most unblushing piece of effrontery I have ever seen in Congress, and it was a vote which cost him very dear, for it cost him his seat, at last. If he had not voted, the result would have been a tie. The resolution would neither have been carried or defeated. Nothing, therefore, could have moved a reconsideration, and the failure to pass the resolution would have left Mr Stockton in his seat. I do not believe the question would have been brought up again, in fact do not see how it could have been. But the vote for himself angered the Republican minority, and they determined on a reconsideration. Poland of Vermont, moved to reconsider on Monday, and from that moment till five P. M. on Friday, the Senate was excited to the extent of its capabilities. The galleries were packed—hundreds could not get in, and the Senate floor was packed with members of the House, foreign ministers and distinguished strangers. No single Senator did more to carry the reconsideration and the final vote declaring Stockton not entitled to the seat, than Nye of Nevada. He worked like a beaver. His pluck was manifest in every emergency. Still it could not have been carried if Stewart from the same State, had not absented himself from the Senate chamber. Having on Friday last voted for Stockton, Mr. Stewart would not consent to change his vote, but he did absent himself. I think that hereafter Stewart will steadily act with the radical Republicans. Everybody says so. He has been very kindly treated by them, and has gone up to Connecticut to stump the State for two or three days for Senator Hawley, the Republican candidate. The fact is, that the President has treated Mr. Stewart very shabbily. He (Stewart,) stood by the President in his first veto, but the President then refused to listen to him in reference to important appointments in Idaho. The second veto is too much for Stewart, and he will stand hereafter with his colleague, Nye.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS VETO MESSAGE.

The Veto Message was taken up and read on Tuesday afternoon at 5 P. M.—immediately after the vote was taken on Stockton. Everybody was amazed at it—even some of the Democrats were surprised that the President went so far. The scene was an impressive one. Mr. Forney read the document in a clear voice to a silent Senate. One could at times have heard a sigh from one side of the chamber to the other, the silence was so profound. The vote should have been taken at once, and would have been, if two Republican members had not gone home to dinner, feeling sure that the vote would not be taken that night. It could have passed by a two-thirds vote on the spot. Stewart, who had been out all the afternoon, came back and was ready to vote for the bill, as he did on its passage originally. Willey of West Virginia was also pledged to vote for the bill. How he will vote on Monday next I will not undertake to predict. The steamer leaves too soon for me to state in this letter, but I always fear to leave doubtful men to the influences which Presidents know how to use.

THE LATE SENATOR FOOTE—IMPRESSIVE DEATH SCENE.

The death of Senator Foote of Vermont created a profound sensation throughout the country, especially in Washington, where he has been so long known and beloved. He was taken ill several months ago with jaundice (as it was thought) and from the first he felt certain that he should die. From the outset—from the beginning of his illness, he "set his house in order" and made every preparation for death. He was not alarmed for an instant, but constantly asserted to his friends, who felt certain that he would recover, that they were mistaken. It turned out at last that his disease was a good deal worse than was thought, for it was an enlargement of the liver, instead simple jaundice. A week ago to-day his physicians began to despair of him and on Monday it was announced that he must die. He was not startled by the announcement, but Washington was. He died calmly and beautifully. A few moments before his death he asked to be raised so, that he could see the Capitol. His boarding house was near the Capitol—on Capitol Hill—and from the windows of his chamber he could see the vast and noble pile of buildings. After he had taken a last look, he fell back and into a kind of stupor. It was supposed that he was dead for a few moments, but he rallied and lived a half hour longer. A moment previous to his death he exclaimed, "I see it! I see it! The beautiful gates are open!"

The funeral services were performed yesterday in the Senate, in the presence of an immense crowd of people. The President was present with every member of the Cabinet. The Secretary of State was looking feeble and not in good spirits. The President was pugnacious as usual (I mean in his looks), and neither looked to the right nor the left. Not far off sat Thad. Stevens with countenance of iron—with his great forehead strangely contrasting with the low, round, bulldog head of the President. Mr. Sumner, too, was present—and there were the accuser and the accused! There was the President who accuses Messrs Sumner and Stevens with being instigators of assassination, and revolutionists. There, too, were the men thus accused. It would be impossible to make any stranger who looked upon them believe that the Senator or Representative was an "assassin"—in fact, if he was a phonologist he would be a good deal more likely to single out the President as the guilty man. Poor Mr. Seward; he looks but the wreck of his former self. The war, the death of his wife, and the troubles attending reconstruction, have made terrible inroads upon his health and his personal appearance. He is closely with the President and may be relied upon to stand with him in every emergency—and against Congress and the people.

TAXATION OF INDIAN LANDS.

A bill was up in the House on Wednesday, which subjects Indian lands in Kansas and elsewhere to taxation, and a fierce attack was made upon it by Mr Ingersoll of Illinois and some other members. Mr. Henderson of Oregon, participated in the debate. I give it from the Globe:

"Mr. Henderson—Mr Speaker I should not attempt to say anything on this bill but for the fact that I am a member of the committee on Indian Affairs, and concurred with other members of the committee in reporting the bill.

The gentleman from Illinois (Mr Ingersoll) appears to imagine that this bill is designed to defraud the Indians, because they do not understand the tax laws.

Mr Ingersoll—The gentleman from Oregon (Mr Henderson) will allow me to correct him. He is advancing the same idea which has been put forward by the gentleman from Minnesota, (Mr Windom) that I insist that this bill was framed for the especial purpose of defrauding the Indians, and in all probability will do so. I disclaim any such idea. I simply insist that under this bill, crafty, designing men can take advantage of the Indians, and in all probability will do so. But I do not mean to intimate that the committee had any such design in framing the bill.

Mr Henderson—I did not desire to represent the gentleman from Illinois as having said that the bill was intended for that purpose, but the gentleman [illegible] that the Indians will not understand the tax laws sufficiently to protect their own lands. According to my information concerning the character of these Indians, the gentleman is very much mistaken. They are generally shrewd, intelligent men, many of them have become wealthy; they understand how to take care of their interests, and there need be no apprehension that they will be defrauded in consequence of ignorance of the tax laws.

The insinuation was thrown out by some of the gentlemen who spoke yesterday that this bill has been gotten up by a set of swindlers who intend to defraud the Indians. In reply to this, I can say that the bill in its present form was asked for by the Representative from Kansas, (Mr Clarke.)

I will say, in reference to the provisions of this bill as they affect these Indians, that I believe them to be just and right and that they ought to be adopted by this House. These lands are held in severalty, and a great many of the settlements of these Indians are surrounded at least on three sides by those of white men, and the settlements of some white men are surrounded on three sides by those of Indians. He (Clarke) says that some settlements are surrounded on all four sides. Now, in an [illegible] thus situated [illegible] Neither the whites nor the Indians can prosper where there is such a mixed and divided jurisdiction. There must be some uniformity, at least [illegible] this bill proposes to supply.

[illegible] the gentleman from Illinois Mr Ingersoll [illegible] the troubles between the white [illegible] Indians are almost universally chargeable upon the whites. I have lived a long time in sight of Indians [illegible] I think I have a pretty correct knowledge of their [illegible] and so far as I am able to say that [illegible] those who are not civilized and enlightened, who have not been brought under the influence of Christianity, have no moral principle, and are not to be depended upon. I deny that the barbarities perpetrated by the Indians have universally been occasioned by the whites. I could recite barbarities perpetrated by Indians upon the whites within my own knowledge. But I will not take up the time to do so. I repel however any idea that the barbarities committed by the Indians have grown out of any acts of the whites. They grow out of the depraved nature of the [illegible] not enlightened by Christianity. That is the [illegible] of which so many of these Indians have been guilty."

SENATOR WILLIAMS.

Mr Williams, your Senator, has been stumping Connecticut for Senator Hawley, the Union candidate for Governor. He made a most favorable impression upon the people there. I need not remind you that he is making his mark in the Senate. The proceedings day after day show that. He is clearly one of the most influential men in the Senate, and is a general favorite. He stands true to Congress and the country in the great controversy which is going on, and cannot be tempted even with a powerful Administration trying to coax him over to its side. STEAMER DAY.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE.

Mr Seward's Official Account of the Hampton Roads Negotiations—The Rebels Propose an Armistice at Home and a War Abroad—Mr. Lincoln Insists on Surrender and Emancipation

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, Feb 7, 1865.

MR. SEWARD TO MR. ADAMS

SIR—It is a truism that in times of peace there are always instigators of war. So soon as a war begins, there are citizens who impatiently demand negotiations for peace. The advocates for war, after an agitation shorter or longer, generally gain their fearful end, though the war declared is not unfrequently unnecessary and unwise. So peace agitators, in time of war, ultimately bring about an abandonment of the conflict—sometimes without securing the advantages which were originally expected from the conflict.

The agitators for war in time of peace, and for peace in time of war, are not necessarily, or ordinarily, unpatriotic in their purposes and motives. Results alone determine whether they are wise or unwise. The treaty of peace concluded at Guadalupe Hidalgo, was secured by an irregular negotiation under the ban of the Government. Some of the efforts which have been made to bring about negotiations with a view to end our civil war are known to the whole world, because they have employed foreign as well as domestic agents; others, with whom you have had to deal confidentially, are known to yourself, although they have not publicly transpired. Other efforts have occurred here, which are known only to the persons actually moving in them and to this Government. I am now to give you for your information an account of an affair of the same general character, which recently received much attention here, and which doubtless will excite inquiry abroad.

A few days ago Francis P. Blair, Esq., of Maryland, obtained from the President a simple leave to pass through our military lines without definite views to the Government. Mr. Blair visited Richmond, and on his return he showed to the President a letter which Jefferson Davis had written to Mr. Blair, in which Davis wrote that Mr Blair was at liberty to say to President Lincoln that Davis was now, as he had always been, willing to send Commissioners, if assured they would be received, or to receive any that should be sent; that he was not disposed to find obstacles in forms. He would send Commissioners to confer with the President, with a view to a restoration of peace between the two countries, if he could be assured they would be received. The President thereupon, on the 18th of January, addressed a note to Mr. Blair, in which the President, after acknowledging that he had read the note of Mr. Davis, said he was, is, and always should be, willing to receive any agent that Mr. Davis, or any other influential person, now actually resisting the authority of the Government, might send to confer informally with the President with a view to the restoration of peace to the people of our common country. Mr. Blair visited Richmond with his letter and then came back again to Washington. On the 29th inst., we were advised from the camp of Lieut.-Gen. Grant that Alexander H. Stephens, R. M. T. Hunter and John A. Campbell were applying for leave to pass through the lines to Washington as Peace Commissioners to confer with the President. They were permitted by the Lieutenant-General to come to his headquarters, to await there the decision of the President. Major Eckert was sent down to meet the party from Richmond at Gen. Grant's headquarters. The Major was directed to deliver to them a copy of the President's letter to Mr. Blair, with a note to be addressed to them and signed by the Major, in which they were directly informed, that if they should be allowed to pass our lines they would be understood as coming for an informal conference upon the basis of the aforenamed letter of the 18th of January to Mr. Blair. If they should express their assent to this condition in writing, then Major Eckert was directed to give them safe conduct to Fortress Monroe, when a person coming from the President would meet them. It being thought probable, from a report of their conversation with Lieutenant General Grant, that the Richmond party would in the manner prescribed accept the condition mentioned, the Secretary of State was charged by the President with the duty of representing this Government at the expected informal conference. The Secretary arrived at Fortress Monroe on the night of the 1st of February. Major Eckert met him in the morning of the 2d of February with the information that the persons who had come from Richmond had not accepted the condition in writing upon which he was allowed to give them conduct to Fortress Monroe. The Major had given the same information by telegraph to the President at Washington. On receiving this information, the President prepared a telegram directing the Secretary to return to Washington. The Secretary was preparing at the same moment to do so, without waiting for instructions from the President. But at this juncture Lieutenant-General Grant telegraphed to the Secretary of War, as well as to the Secretary of State that the party from Richmond had reconsidered and accepted the conditions tendered them through Major Eckert, and General Grant urgently advised the President to confer in person with the Richmond party.

Accordingly the Secretary remained, and the President joined him there on the night of the 2d of February. The Richmond party was brought down the James River in a United States steam transport during the day, and the transport was anchored at Hampton Roads.

On the morning of the 3d the President, attended by the Secretary, received Messrs. Stephens, Hunter and Campbell, on board the United States steam transport River Queen in Hampton Roads. There was no attendance of secretaries, clerks or other witnesses. Nothing was written or read. The conversation, though earnest and free, was calm and courteous and kind on both sides. The Richmond party approached the subject rather indirectly, and at no time did they either make categorical demands, or tender formal stipulations, or absolute refusals. Nevertheless, during the conference, which lasted four hours, the several points at issue between the Government and the insurgents were distinctly raised and discussed fully, intelligently, and in an amicable spirit. What the insurgent party seemed chiefly to favor was a postponement of the question of separation upon which the war is waged, and a mutual direction of the efforts of Government, as well as those of the insurgents, to some extrinsic policy or scheme for a season, during which passion might be expected to subside and the armies to be reduced, and trade and intercourse between the people of both sections resumed. It was suggested by them that through such postponement we might now have immediate peace, with some not very certain prospect of an ultimate satisfactory adjustment of political relations between this Government and the States, section or people now engaged in conflict with it.

The suggestion though deliberately considered, was nevertheless regarded by the President as one of armistice or truce, and he announced that we can agree to no cessation or suspension of hostilities except on the basis of disbandment of the insurgent forces and the restoration of the national authority throughout all the States in the Union. Collaterally and in subordination to the proposition that was thus announced, the anti-slavery party of the United States was reviewed in all its bearings, and the President announced that he must not be expected to depart from the positions he had heretofore assumed in his Proclamations of Emancipation and other documents, as those positions were reiterated in his last annual message. It was further declared by the President that the complete restoration of the national authority was an indispensable condition of any assent on our part to whatever form of peace might be proposed. The President assured the other party that while he must adhere to these positions, he would be prepared, so far as power is lodged with the Executive, to exercise liberality.

His power is limited by the Constitution. And when peace should be made, Congress must necessarily act in regard to appropriations of money and the admission of Representatives from the insurrectionary States. The Richmond party were then informed that Congress had on the 31st ult. adopted, by a constitutional majority, a joint resolution, submitting to the several States the proposition to abolish slavery throughout the Union, and that there is every reason to expect that it will soon be accepted by three fourths of the States, so as to become a part of the national organic law. The conference came to an end by mutual acquiescence, without producing an agreement of views upon the several matters discussed, or any of them. Nevertheless, it is perhaps of some importance that we have been able to submit our opinions and views directly to prominent insurgents, and to hear them answer in a courteous and not unfriendly manner.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant

WILLIAM H. SEWARD

Charles Francis Adams, Esq., &c. &c.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., March 24th—Governor Brownlow has been in this city for some days, recruiting his shattered health. At the invitation of the German League of this city, he addressed a large assemblage of fellow citizens this evening.

He prefaced his remarks by asking their indulgence, as he was feeble but promised them to be brief and to the point. He said that parties were against work, seeking an ascendancy in the Government. The Democratic party under a new guise and new leaders, were again asking countenance from the people. The living as a matter were Democratic [illegible]. The Southern States were all Democratic when they went into the rebellion. The revenue stamps you are taxed with are Democratic and so are shinplasters. I announce to you that if Andrew Johnson is to lead the way in reconstruction with the Democratic party at his back I go the other way. I go with the Congress of the United States, the so-called Radicals. I do not fear to side with them. The name of Radical has no terrors for me. I have been known as a d—d line light Whig" and a "d—d lunatic," and think I can go [illegible] now let me off by calling me a "d—d Radical."

So far as the reconstruction policy of the President is developed, I do not endorse it. I do indorse his policy as Military Governor of Tennessee. I indorse his letter accepting the Baltimore nomination. I indorse his declaration that if there were but five Union men in the State, they should govern such State. I indorse his declaration that treason should be made odious. If we differ it is he who has changed.

There are "two human monsters," now engaging the attention of the American people. Their names are on every man's lips. I refer to Sumner and Stevens. President Johnson is engaged in a bitter warfare against them. To abuse these men is the test of loyalty Johnson prescribes. They are both men of ability and unblemished private character. Stevens has sacrificed more for the Union than any five men in East Tennessee, and is a better Union man than any two men who ever lived in the South. I am not afraid to endorse these men on my own "dunghill." We must all be Radicals or reconstructed Democrats. I prefer to side with the former class.

You have heard a good deal about negro equality. You are asked by adversaries if you are in favor of negro equality. It is a humbug cry, and I think [illegible] [illegible] I have no fear that [illegible] down to the level [illegible] whites who by [illegible] I have put their class [illegible]

[illegible] Stat[illegible] position I have [illegible] that, for the present I am willing, [illegible] the freedom of the slaves, and with the privilege given them to testify in Courts. I differ from Brown [illegible] subject. He says he is in favor of [illegible] vote who can read, who are worth $250 will have been in the army, and of gradually extending the right of suffrage to all. It was through his influence that we succeeded in passing the Negro Testimony bill in our Tennessee Legislature. He wrote letters, and sent telegrams, asking members to support the bill. It was through his help that the bill became a law. He went further than I [illegible] to [illegible] It will come in time [illegible] Tennessee prior to [illegible]

I have some secrets to tell of the Freedmen's Bureau bill. I think the bill was objectionable, and it might have been [illegible] but he [illegible] ought not to have done it. Generals Howard and Fiske drew up that bill. They carried it to the President and read it to him, section by section. He [illegible] Fiske thought the expenses would be too great, but the President said "no." He urged it, and promised to sign it if Congress should pass it. It went through both Houses. In the meantime, he got into a personal quarrel with Sumner and others, and when the bill came before him for signature he vetoed it, after having promised to favor it. This is a secret, but true.

I am in favor of the test oath, and don't want it repealed, and it won't be thank God. There are crippled rebels in Washington who want to govern this country and I am opposed to letting them in. There will be help to govern the country. President Johnson can't carry a single State north of Mason's line but Kentucky.

The people of the North are for the Union. I have written letters to Colfax, Kelley and others, in which I have been abused by the rebels all through the South. They are more defiant to-day than when they surrendered. The Tennessee delegates ought to be admitted when they take the oath. They had fifty papers in Tennessee and but seven of them are loyal. The thirty three are bitter, spiteful, rebel sheets, many of them edited by Northern Copperheads—the meanest class of men that walk on earth. They are meaner than Judas Iscariot. Arnold and Burr were patriots compared to them.

Our State Legislature is at a lock—twenty one members bolted. They all indorse President Johnson. They have left two hundred lunatics and three hundred convicts to starve. I have provided money to feed them. If the next Legislature refuses to refund the money, I will turn the crazy and the convicted loose on Middle Tennessee. It will be the best physic they ever had.

The Governor closed by warning all his old friends to stand by the Government. He predicted that the South would attempt another revolution through the ballot box. If they did, he said the Northern border would grind them to powder.

He was followed by General Smith, of Tennessee, who said an orchestra playing the "Star-Spangled Banner" was hissed by the citizens of Memphis the other day. General Trowbridge followed indorsing Congress and opposing the Nashville Convention.

The Herald habitually shows its (perhaps just) contempt for the understandings of its patrons by such paragraphs as the following:

"Shall a negro supersede Grant as General-in-Chief of the United States Army? The Civil Rights bill says that he can do so!"

We have hitherto presumed that General Grant attained and holds his high position by virtue of his generalship, but the Herald makes him Lieutenant General by reason of the color of his skin. If that be the case to be a Lieutenant General is nothing to be proud of.—New York Tribune.

Wesley Norris, a former slave of Gen. Lee, gives the particulars of a punishment once inflicted on his sister and himself for endeavoring to escape North in 1859, under the impression that they were emancipated by the will of G. W. Parke Custis, to whose estate Gen. Lee fell heir. His sister and himself were stripped to the waist by a county constable, receiving fifty lashes and the twenty. Their backs were then washed in brine in the presence of Gen. Lee, and they were sent to jail.

SOMETHING NEW AND NOVEL.—A PATENT APPLIED FOR.—Mr. HAYNES has invented an article by which he can take any number of Head Pictures on the same plate without the subject getting up from the chair; can get different positions of the face and all sizes of heads, can put a half dozen heads on the space of a half dollar; can put a whole family of heads on a common steel card, and will sell pictures cheaper than any other Gallery on this coast. Has the process for taking the new and beautiful style picture called the Porcelain or Sun Point, so much talked of in San Francisco, also has engaged a man from that place who has been making those pictures in San Francisco.

Mr. H. is now prepared to do as good work and in as great variety of style as any Gallery in Portland. Orders for full portrait size of photograph will be promptly attended to. ap16d1mf

In fact, it stands unrivaled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

FRENCH MEDICAL OFFICE,

FOR THE

CURE OF SPECIAL DISEASES,

ARMORY HALL BUILDING,

Northeast Corner Montgomery

and Sacramento streets,

ENTRANCE ON EITHER MONTGOMERY OR SACRAMENTO STREET.

DR. PERRAULT CONTINUES TO TREAT PRIVATE AND CHRONIC COMPLAINTS, SCROFULA, NERVOUS DEBILITY, DISEASES OF THE BLOOD, SPERMATORRHŒA, IMPOTENCE, STERILITY

DR PERRAULT is a Graduate of the University of Queen's College, and is the ONLY REGULAR GRADUATE who practices as a SPECIALIST in San Francisco.

DR PERRAULT will cure all who are afflicted with Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory and Vigor, etc., resulting from injurious habits, contracted in youth, or excess in maturity, which produce constitutional debility and premature decline.

It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to disease owing to unskillful treatment and improper use of Mercury.

All cases of Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, Diseases of the Bladder, Gravel, Spermatorrhœa, and Impotence will be cured in a few days, without prevention from business.

To the Ladies.

Ladies suffering from Whites, Falling of the Womb, Suppression of the Menses, or Profuse Flowing, Costiveness, Piles, Weakness of the Back, Pain in the Side, Headache, Palpitation, and all other diseases to which the female system is subjected, will find prompt relief by addressing themselves to DR. PERRAULT, corner Sacramento and Montgomery streets. Private entrance on Sacramento street.

To those seeking our advice a plain statement of their case will be given, whether curable or not. All cases taken under treatment warranted. No charges for advice. No poisons or harsh medicines to injure the constitution; no making sick to make well; honest in our dealings; frank in our opinions, moderate in our charges. We invite investigation, claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody, but do claim to reason and common sense, and to cure eight out of ten pronounced incurable.

We particularly request those who have tried the Doctor and that scientific Physician, boasted and advertised, till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us. It will cost nothing, as consultations are free.

N. B.—Persons at a distance can be cured at home by addressing a letter to DR. PERRAULT, stating their case as minutely as possible, general habits of living, occupation, etc. Letters to be addressed, J. PERRAULT, M. D., corner Sacramento and Montgomery streets, Rooms 10 and 11, or Box 973, Post Office San Francisco.

DR. PERRAULT still retains the agency of DR. RICOT'S FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS. Their immense sale has established their reputation as the only safe and effectual remedy for all irregularities and obstructions in females, no matter from what cause. On receipt of five dollars, these pills will be sent by Mail or Express to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage. ap24d&w3m

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

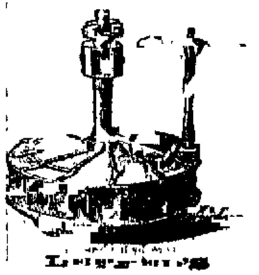
WATER WHEELS.

POWER PLEDGED EQUAL

TO THE

Best Overshot Wheel in Existence.



Prices Greatly Reduced!
Prices Greatly Reduced!

American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works, in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance, commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to

THE GREAT ERADICATOR OF SPECIAL COMPLAINTS, FORMERLY OF LOCKE HOSPITAL, LONDON, EIGHT YEARS IN SACRAMENTO, AND THE LAST THREE YEARS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Experience is of forty years standing, and during that time has met with unparalleled success in the cure of all those diseases generally known as Venereal or Chronic.

It is impossible here to mention all the diseases with which he is familiar; some, perhaps, will not [illegible] place. The most formidable, the most destructive to mankind is Self-Abuse. The brain being the [illegible] disease the whole system suffers in consequence [illegible] here enumerate some of the symptoms, so that the afflicted may be able to form an opinion in regard to their complaints, and seek advice in time, thereby [illegible] themselves a world of suffering: Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory, Pain in the Limbs and Back, [illegible] the Heart, Trembling of the Limbs, Headache, Aversion to Social Society, especially that of [illegible] There are a great many more, but these are [illegible] and should you be suffering from any of these, [illegible] DR. TOZER, and he will cure you in a short time with-out any interruption in your business—or state your case by letter, and there will be no occasion for your calling at the office.

Stricture of the Urethra

Is another formidable enemy to health. Send for my circulars on that disease, and inform yourself of its terrible results. The worst cases cured in a few [illegible]

Venereal Diseases

In all their various forms, either Primary, Secondary or Hereditary, completely eradicated from the system, the constitution being restored to perfect health, [illegible] be no danger of handing down to your children [illegible] rible disease known as Scrofula.

Syphilitic Disease

As it presents itself on this coast, is of a more [illegible] character than that seen in the Atlantic States, arising from the fact of its being a compound of Chinese and Sandwich Island disease. Those [illegible] have visited the two latter countries on [illegible] the dreadful effects of it on both the native [illegible] population. It requires altogether different treatment.

The Old Formulas

Of Ricord, Actel and Bostwick are of little [illegible] cept to dry up the disease on the surface [illegible] poison in the blood, which, sooner or later [illegible] itself as a secondary disease in an aggravated [illegible] facts I have learned by experience, and [illegible] say without boasting that I have seen [illegible] these diseases than any other physician [illegible] dating as it does from 1849. It becomes [illegible] to think well, before you employ a physician.

Who is the proper one to consult—an [illegible] one or one who has recently settled.

My Plan is Purely Vegetable

Destroying the disease and purifying the [illegible] there is no danger of secondary symptoms.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia

And diseases arising from the use of [illegible] pains in the skin bones, swelling of the [illegible] the body, running sores, etc., etc., and [illegible] blood, cured in a short time by the use of [illegible] ABLE MIXTURES, known only to myself.
